

Joyful Hearts Counseling

To all Joyful Hearts Counseling clients and families,

This is just a friendly reminder of the no-show/cancellation policy that is in effect: a minimum of 24 hours is required for rescheduling or cancellation of an appointment to avoid payment. Because I am in the office only two days a week, it is imperative that I have notice of any appointment changes so that I may schedule another client in that spot. I will be collecting full payment for any cancelled/no-show session that falls within the 24-hour timeframe. Please note that insurance does not cover the cost for missed appointments. Thank you for your understanding, and as usual, please feel free to voice any questions!

Joyfully,

Leslie Pechkurow, LPC, RYT
